THE CONSTITUTIONAL WALKING TOUR WILL CONTINUE NEW LIVE VIRTUAL TOURS AND DISTANCE LEARNING FIELD
TRIPS FOR THE 2020-21 SCHOOL YEAR

Live Virtual Tours are an Engaging Way to Experience Historic Philadelphia When Students Can't Visit in Person

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania – September 17, 2020 – The Constitutional Walking Tour of Philadelphia today announced they will continue their new live, interactive Virtual Tours hosted by the same entertaining tour guides who host the company's live, guided in person tours. The Constitutional Walking Tour's Virtual Field Trip is a great way to experience Historic Philadelphia during these unprecedented times when you can't travel or visit Philadelphia in person.

Based on the great feedback from the many schools that took the Virtual Tour in Spring 2020, from as far away as California and Florida, we are once again offering Virtual Tours this Fall," stated Jonathan Bari, President of The Constitutional Walking Tour. "As the leading provider of field trips to America's birthplace, if people cannot visit in person, we want to provide the next best option and still be able to show them Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell and share with them Philadelphia's rich history!"

The Constitutional's Virtual Field Trip instruction helps ensure learning continuity and complement educators' efforts to do the same during the Coronavirus outbreak. Using the Zoom platform, The Constitutional provides Virtual Tours to students learning together in a classroom, or to students joining individually from their homes, but participating as a group. The Constitutional's Virtual Field Trip is safe, fun and engaging.

The cost of The Constitutional's Virtual Tour is $125.00 per tour guide for a group up to 50 people on Zoom (additional charges apply for Google Meet or Microsoft Teams), and multiple guides can be booked for larger groups. Please contact The Constitutional at

The approximately 60-75 minute tour stops at more than 20 historic sites - the same stops that are on the live guided tour including the Liberty Bell, Independence Hall, the Betsy Ross House and more!
