THE CONSTITUTIONAL WALKING TOUR OFFERS “BACK TO SCHOOL” PROGRAMS TO COMMEMORATE CONSTITUTION DAY & CITIZENSHIP DAY ON SEPTEMBER 17

Teachers are Invited to Have Their Students Enter the American Freedom Essay Contest to Win a Free Philadelphia Sightseeing Tour for Their Entire Class

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania – August 25, 2009 – The Constitutional Walking Tour of Philadelphia today announced its 2009 Constitution Day & Citizenship Day programs to help celebrate Constitution Day and “Back to School.” September 17th is designated as Constitution Day because on that date in 1787, the delegates of the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia signed the United States Constitution at Independence Hall. The Constitutional Walking Tour is celebrating Constitution Day & Citizenship Day throughout the entire month of September, and teachers are encouraged to utilize The Constitutional's many free educational resources available at:

3rd Annual American Freedom Essay Contest

In honor of Constitution Day, The Constitutional Walking Tour, which provides Philadelphia Sightseeing Tours, wants students to give their views about American freedom. The American Freedom Essay Contest challenges educators to have their students write 100-300 word essays on the importance of freedom in their lives. Entries will be judged in Elementary School, Middle School and High School categories with the winner in each category earning a free field trip of Historic Philadelphia with The Constitutional Walking Tour for his/her class.¹ The deadline for entries is October 16, 2009. For more details, educators are encouraged to visit www.TheConstitutional.com/schools .

¹ No purchase necessary. For complete contest rules, please see www.TheConstitutional.com/essayrules

“Walking in the Founding Fathers’ footsteps with The Constitutional Walking Tour of Philadelphia is a great way to commemorate Constitution Day. Along the tour, visitors see many important sites related to the U.S. Constitution including The First Bank of the United States which sparked the first great Constitutional debate between conservatives and liberals,” stated Jonathan Bari, President of The Constitutional Walking Tour.

The Constitutional Walking Tour offers a variety of other resources to help Educational Institutions and Federal Agencies fulfill the annual requirement for Constitution Day programming. For more information, visit www.TheConstitutional.com/1787 .
