THE CONSTITUTIONAL WALKING TOUR ANNOUNCES STUDENT
WINNERS OF 5th ANNUAL AMERICAN FREEDOM ESSAY CONTEST IN HONOR OF CONSTITUTION DAY & CITIZENSHIP DAY

*Winning Students from Connecticut and Maryland
Receive Free Sightseeing Tour of Philadelphia*

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania – December 6, 2011 – The Constitutional Walking Tour of Philadelphia today announced the student winners of its 2011 American Freedom Essay Contest.

The winner in the Elementary School Category (Grades 1-5) was Abigail Miller from Fruitland Intermediate School in Fruitland, Maryland (Wicomico County) for the essay “The Freedom to Speech” (Teacher: Christy Briggs).

The winner in the Middle School Category (Grades 6-8) was McCall Johnson from St. Anne's School of Annapolis in Annapolis, Maryland (Anne Arundel County) for the essay “Freedom of Speech” (Teacher: Yasmin Mesiya).

The winner in the High School Category (Grades 9-12) was Madeline Wolf from Greenwich High School in Greenwich, Connecticut (Fairfield County) for the essay “Development of Freedom” (Teacher: Aaron Hull).

The American Freedom Essay Contest received many wonderful essays from students attending public and private schools, as well as those being home schooled, all along the East Coast of the United States. In total, there were more than 500 essays received from approximately 50 schools which participated in the Constitution Day essay contest. Schools from the following states participated: Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania. The winning essays are posted online at www.theconstitutional.com/essay .

“Once again in 2011, we were overwhelmed with the response to our fifth annual American Freedom Essay Contest,” stated Jonathan Bari, President of The Constitutional Walking Tour. “We salute all of the students and educators who participated in the contest on a job well done with the high caliber of essays that we received.”

Essay topics represented a broad spectrum of ideas and different points of view on various subjects including freedom of speech, freedom to vote, freedom of assembly, freedom of religion, freedom of the press, the right to petition the government, the right to bear arms, the right to pursue one’s happiness, etc.

American Freedom Essay Contest

September 17th is designated as Constitution Day because on that date in 1787, the delegates of the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia signed the United States Constitution at Independence Hall. For the third year, in honor of Constitution Day, The Constitutional Walking Tour asked students to give their views about American freedom. The American Freedom Essay Contest challenged educators to get their students to write a 100-300 word essay on the importance of freedom in their lives. Entries were judged in Elementary School, Middle School and High School categories with the winner in each category earning a free field trip of Historic Philadelphia with The Constitutional Walking Tour for his/her class.
